Men's Mass Meeting Held Thursday Night

Continuation of Men's Student Government and Discipline Problem Discussed

PRES. COVERT PRESENTS PLAN

Student government, the most democratic institution of the College, is now under fire. The Student Council has existed for the past four years under its present constitution. It has functioned reasonably well in the past, however the recent tendency has been toward laxity and disinterest. The issue has come to a head and action of some kind was set in motion last week.

A mass meeting of the men of the College was held last Thursday evening in Bomberger Hall for the purpose of providing for an adequate means to keep discipline on the campus. Scott V. Covert '32, president of the present Student Council, filling the capacity of chairman explained the impending situation in the judicial organization. It seems approximately fifty per cent of the members of the Council refuse to report infractions of rules and moreover are not desirous of convicting persons accused in this way.

Mr. Covert advanced two plans one of which must be chosen. According to him the alternatives are: first—that the Student Council be continued as a disciplinary body. The conditions which would be upheld under this policy are:

1. Any accusation should be made personally to the Student Council.
2. It should be understood that each member of the Student Council should consider it his duty to report any infraction of Student Council rules and College rules.
3. That each member of the Student Assembly should consider it his duty to report and lend his aid in clearing up such infractions.

The second plan is—that the Student Council relinquish all its disciplinary functions. The state of affairs (Continued on page 4)

COACH CARELTON'S CREW

CLOSES DIFFICULT SEASON

The Grizzly matmen have closed a rather successful season. While Coach Carleton's boys were on the winning side of the ledger only once, they showed up creditably in all the matches, dropping three by a margin of a few points. Much credit must be attributed to the coach for the marked development and improvement in the team.

Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute defeated the grapplers, 21-11 in the first match of the season. Al Alspach won on a fall and Otto Paris and Kucinskas on time advantages.

F. and M. swamped the Ursinusites 36-0. Many of the divisions were closely contested, however.

Haverford succumbed in the first home "informal workout" 30-18. Peiffer, Kucinskas, Paris, Citta, Levin, Alspach, contributed falls to the scoring.

On February 27, Rutgers defeated the local aggregation, 23-13. Peterson and Alspach scored falls and Paris a time advantage.

With several new men wrestling, Gettysburg came out on the winning end, 20-16, each team winning four decisions.

High scoring of the season went to Alspach, who tallied three falls for a total of 15 points. Paris was second with 11 and Peterson third with 10. Following is a score tabulation:

Alspach, 15; Paris, 11; Peterson, 10; Citta, 8; Kucinskas, 8; Hess, 5; Levin, 5; Peiffer, 5; Shollenberger, 3.

RENA GRIM LEADING LADY

Work has been begun on the Junior Play, "The Devil in the Cheese," which is to be presented April 30. The author Tom Cushing has chosen a fantastic setting for his play which has for its background an ancient monastery in Greece. The leading lady, Goldine Quigley, will be portrayed by Rena Grim. The part of her mother, Mrs. Quigley will be taken by Margaret Deger. The leading male characters will be Mr. Quigley, Floyd Heller and Jimmy Chard, Clair Hubert. The minor characters will be selected after Easter.

Albright '34. Alumni editor—Eveline B. Omwake '33. Sports reporters—Bernard B. Zamostein '33, Irving E. Sutin '34, Bertha I. Francis '35, Elizabeth Maris '35. Reporters—Harry F. Thomas '35, Dorothy E. Horne '35.

Mr. Alspach is thoroughly qualified for the position to which he has been chosen having served on the Weekly staff for over two years as a reporter and associate editor. He has been successful in other fields of activity at Ursinus among which are debating, wrestling and music. He is a member of the Y. M. cabinet and Tau Kappa Alpha. Mr. Smeigh who takes over his duties as advertising manager at the end of this year has been active in campus activities being a member of the Interfraternity Council and has played varsity Football and Basketball for two years. He is a member of Sigma Rho Lambda. The new circulation manager, Mr. Mohn has been engaged in varied work at college being on two varsity basketball teams, is manager of football for 1932, and is a member of Beta Sigma Lambda.

WIN RADIO DEBATE

The Ursinus men's affirmative debating team won the inter-collegiate radio debate with the University of Pennsylvania. This forensic tilt took place March 4 over Station WCAU of Philadelphia. Decision was based on the number of votes sent in by mail and results were made known last Friday. Floyd E. Heller '33 and Bernard B. Zamostein '33 represented Ursinus College.

VARSITY CLUB TO BANQUET

Plans for the Varsity Club banquet were definitely completed with the announcement that Coach Harman of the U. of P. had been obtained as one of the speakers. Mr. Scirica, '32, chairman of the committee, announced that about fifty-five or sixty members and guests of the Club are expected to be present at the Spring Mountain House on the evening of March 17.

All scripts for the May Day Pageant must be handed to Mrs. Sheeder by noon Monday, March 28.

SUSQUEHANNA MEET CANCELED

The men's affirmative debating team has returned to the campus after a very successful tour of New Jersey and Northern Pennsylvania, winning two out of three debates.

The question for all three debates was "Resolved: That capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound in principle."

Leaving last Monday noon, the delegation, including Bernard Zamostein '33, James E. Palm '33, Floyd E. Heller, Jr. '33, and Alfred C. Alspach '33 journeyed to New Brunswick, N. J. Here the Ursinus forensic artists defeated Rutgers University. The debate was held in Queens Hall. The opponents were Louis Glick, Carl Weiss, and Maurice Brown. Prof. Dayton B. McKeon, professor of public speaking and debating at Princeton University rendered a critic judge's decision in favor of the Ursinus team composed of Messrs. Palm, Heller and Alspach.

St. Thomas College of Scranton was the host at the next encounter. Arnold I. Coplin, Dominic Motsay and R. Carl Haarmeyer opposed Zamostein, Heller, and Alspach. The board of judges including the pastor of the (Continued on page 4)

Vesper services Sunday evening were in charge of Miss Van Sciver and Mr. Shollenberger, Jack Williams and Finney Wood both of Haddonfield, spoke on the topic of "Present Day Problems and Their Solution."

CLAUDE W. LODGE

Claude Lodge '33 stellar performer on the court, diamond and gridiron, and high scorer of the Ursinus basketball team in the season just closed, has been chosen by his teammates to again lead the Bear quintet in 1932-33. Lodge has been active in other fields of college work being a member of the Student Council and a Y. M. C. A. officer.

GRIZZLY BASKETEERS HAVE

RATHER POOR COURT SEASON

Win Four Contests During Current Campaign; Finish in Tie for Last Place in League

LODGE SEASON'S HIGH SCORER

Another basketball season has come and gone, but its passing was not marked by any great amount of mourning. At least there is no one bemoaning the fact that the schedule has run out, unless it might be opposing teams. Basketball, as far as intercollegiate competition is concerned, is gone and forgotten.

And all of this because Ursinus has suffered another disastrous court campaign. The varsity won but four games out of eighteen and finished in a tie for the cellar position in the newly formed league. Three of the four victories were established in loop competition.

When "Horse" Chase brought his Pitt system to town, prospects for a successful season loomed brightly on the horizon for ample material presented itself to the new coach. Five lettermen from last year's squad reported together with the entire ex-Frosh quintette which flashed so brilliantly but a twelvemonth ago.

The first game with Moravian resulted in a rather decisive victory for the Bears and their stock was boosted again, only to have a wave of setbacks rush in and reduce hopes. Princeton, Swarthmore and Albright conquered the Bear and the panic was on.

The Grizzlies then pulled their first surprise of the year in beating Lebanon Valley, a team that finished in a second place tie in the E. P. C. B. L. However, four more rapid-fire defeats were hung on the Collegevillians received at the hands of Villanova (2) and La Salle and Albright.

FROSH-SOPH TRACK MEET

SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 13

Wednesday, April 13 has been set definitely as the date of the Frosh-Soph track meet. This date which comes two weeks after the students return from the Easter vacation will inaugurate the competitive track season on Patterson Field. All men students of both of these lower classes are eligible to compete. It is not restricted to candidate for the varsity team. In fact, every student is urged to enter in at least one event. No previous experience is necessary. Added to the regular course of events will be a mile relay race.

Dr. Rubin, coach of the track team, has named two committees of three men each from the Freshman and Sophomore classes respectively to organize their candidates. Walter Tropp, Irvin Sutin, and Robert Bennett constitute the Sophomore committee. The Freshman committee includes Abe Harris, Harry Brian, and Thomas Price.

The potential material of both classes is rather evenly matched and a close contest is anticipated. To add even greater interest to this event the student council has decreed that the freshmen regulations concerning socks and ties will be abolished if the yearlings are victorious.

Ball and Entertainment Given by Class of '32

Unique Modernistic Decorations and Fine Orchestra Feature Formal Affair Friday

PLAY AND MINSTREL A SUCCESS

Senior Ball

Even Terpsichore, Goddess of dancing in ancient Greece, could not have arranged a finer Ball than did the Class of '32. To the tunes of a twentieth century orchestra, amidst modernistic decorations the Eds and Coeds of the campus frolicked in the Gymnasium on Friday evening.

The Seniors were the hosts at one of the years gayest functions and even the most optimistic forecasters could not imagine the glamour and gaiety which this dance offered. A good orchestra plus tuxedos and evening gowns usually means a good time, however, the Seniors not only offered these but also had the gym decorated in such fine style that it was hard to believe it was in the same hall of basketball times. A false ceiling of black and white fringed streamers; walls covered with skyline figures and silhouettes; and drop lights at various points about the floor all blended to give the place an atmosphere of dignity.

Praise should be extended to Edward Kottcamp who planned and managed the work which the dance entailed. Others who assisted in the work were the misses Katherine Hand, Beatrice Trattner, Eva Seiple, Emily Roth, and Bernice Buchanan and the messrs Clarence Livengood, Clifford Thoroughgood, Jack Coates, James Herron, and Jack Massey.

Senior Entertainment

A week-end of festivity for the Seniors was culminated by the Minstrel held last Saturday night in the gymnasium. Heading the program was a one-act play, "The Valiant," ably presented by the Norris Thespians. Ralph Sumpman and his Boys played several modern selections, followed by a comedy skit and vocal numbers by the Norristown talent.

PHILA. ALUMNI HOLD

IMPORT. BUSINESS MEETING

The Philadelphia Association of Ursinus Alumni held its postponed business meeting at the office of Mayne R. Longstreth, on Thursday, March 10. The chief business, aside from the usual routine, was the careful consideration of the Constitution under which the Association had been acting for the past year. Dr. Ernest C. Wagner, the original framer of the Constitution, read the Constitution section by section offering many modifications. Chief among these modifications were the elimination of an executive committee as separate from the elected officers, and of several committees, purpose of which was excellent in theory but which did not function in practice. The modified constitution was adopted for one year.

Dr. Ernest C. Wagner, '10 was elected president. Mr. Mayne R. Longstreth, who has been the efficient secretary-treasurer for forty years, was released from his duties, upon his own request, and no one, as yet, has been elected to fill this position. The Philadelphia Association is deeply indebted to Mr. Longstreth for his long years of faithful service, and members will miss his name on the letters of the Association. It is hoped some one of the younger alumni may strive to equal Mr. Longstreth's long term of service.

Editorial Comment

THE REAL QUESTION

The recent men's mass meeting has accomplished at least one important thing—it has aroused interest in a student problem and provoked comment and discussion upon it. Such comment and argumentation as is taking place aids greatly the intelligent settling of the question.

Out of the verbal conflict there arise three main thoughts. These are: First, the basic question of whether discipline at Ursinus should be handled by the students or by the faculty. Second, whether the students should aid in this discipline to the extent of reporting infractions, misdeamors, etc. Third, whether the student body believes the members of the Student Council should be "police."

Of these three aspects the last one, whether it is realized or not, was the real reason for the calling of the mass meeting. This was pointed out by the President of the Student Council. There are members of the council who felt it was not their duty to report cases of misbehavior with which they came in contact in the dormitories and elsewhere. Or at any rate they felt that, if it was their duty, they would be unable to fulfill it honestly and should resign. One line of action is then clear—the assembly should let the council know its attitude on this question.

How some of the council men got the idea they should not report cases is not clear. It is probably due largely to the same feeling that most students not members have, namely that one reporting will be held in disfavor. Surely, though, the office which a man holds as a council member exempts him from any ridicule. The men of the College should know ahead of time that it is the council member's duty to report, then there would be no question about it when he did. If the student body is not willing for the council to have such power and if they should return a vote to that effect then the faculty should take charge. In that case the council should be abolished, for its real use would be at an end.

The question was also raised as to whether it is the duty of each student to report cases that fall under his observation. We believe that it should be. However, with fraternities and other personal factors considered highly by many students, it is no less than an unworkable ideal. Students should be made to answer the subpoena of the council for evidence, but to have discipline by a system of voluntary reporting has proven unpracticable in the past. As we stated before the main question for the assembly to answer is regarding the councils activity—should they or should they not be "police"?

JOBS FOR NEXT YEAR'S SOPHS

With the exception of football there have not been enough men trying out for sport managerships here at College. Briefly some of the advantages of such positions are: First, the earning of a varsity letter. The opportunity is given to those unable to make teams from the playing side to serve and receive the same award. Secondly, such a position affords the individual experience in business matters. Thirdly, there are some of the advantages the athletes get, namely various contacts in travel and insight into other collegiate institutions.

We think that some of the evils of the past system of electing managers have kept men from trying out. A knowledge of the new system now being used should encourage more men to avail themselves of managership positions. Before explaining at all this present system it would be well to say that this chiefly concerns the Freshmen, next year's Sophomores, in which class all competition takes place for the positions.

After the sport in season is over those Sophomores, who have working for managerships are voted on preferentially by the team (as a unit), the coach, the captain, the varsity manager and the two junior managers. These votes have different values so that one group can not swing the election. The whole voting is tabulated and the Sophomores are listed according to the preference of the vote. Those two receiving the least number of counters are made junior assistants. The two, who have been serving as junior assistants, are also voted on preferentially, the one getting the lowest score is made varsity manager and the other manager of the Freshmen team. The list of rated Sophomores is kept so that in case of a vacancy the one next in line moves up.

The particular advantages of this system may be summarized as follows: 1, All competition is in the Sophomore year. 2, No one, therefore, is cut lose after that year without a job. 3, Vacancies occur and are filled from the preferential list. 4, No one division, coach, team, etc. can control the election.

With these advantages added to those at first named we think it would pay the Sophomores of next year to look into this activity.

Mr. Simmer Speaks On Conditions In Germany

The joint Y. M. and Y. W. meeting on Wednesday, March 9 was in charge of Claude Lodge '33. The meeting was opened by the singing of two hymns. Mary Francis '33 read the scripture lesson, which was followed by prayer.

Mr. Simmer of the University of Pennsylvania addressed the meeting on "Present Conditions In Germany." He began by saying that, as he was only spending four months in our country, he hoped we would overlook his difficulties with our language. He proved, however, to be a very interesting speaker. His talk dealt almost exclusively with the economic problems which face Germany at present. The big problem which confronts Germany today is the fact that she is able to feed only about 75 per cent of her population. Mr. Simmer said that, unlike America, Germany is dependent on other nations for many of her supplies. Therefore, in exchange for food from other countries, Germany gives labor, which throws many people out of work in the countries which receive German products. These countries then, in order to protect themselves raise high tariffs and this makes conditions worse for Germany. Since 1914 Germany has been a debtor country. America loaned her money to invest in her industries, and now Germany cannot repay her debts. She owes about $25,000,000,000 to other countries, and can see no way clear to pay this debt because of lack of co-operation between her and the countries to whom she owes.

Mr. Simmer gave a very vivid picture of the crises Germany faces because of this lack of co-operation. She must produce for herself and her creditors, and this she is unable to do. Germany borrowed the money to restore her industries, and to pay her debts. She tried the policy of selling her goods so cheaply that foreign markets would have to buy them or sell their own goods at a loss; but unemployment resulted and protective tariff barriers were raised, so that this policy had of necessity to be abandoned. Therefore, Mr. Simmer concluded, the only way these problems can be solved is by co-operation between the debtor and creditor countries. Otherwise, Germany will be unable to pay her debts, and conditions will be worse than ever.

CLASS B. B. ORGANIZED

A meeting of all girls interested in class basketball was held Tuesday, March 8. This group included only those who have not been members of the varsity squad. ONE of the pleasant tasks of a college president is the editing of the catalogue. I believe in some colleges this is done by a committee of the Faculty, but in Ursinus it is a job for the "man of all work." I find that the editing of this publication keeps the president informed from year to year as to just what his institution consists of.

I suppose many persons think the catalogue is the same from year to year. We do try to keep it the same in outward appearance, so that it may readily be identified, but within every year sees many changes. Here and there may be a few lines that have come down from former generations, but on the whole the book has been rewritten a number of times over during the period in which I have given personal attention to its publication. Some years ago we made a special study of the mechanical features as a result of which the present typography and texture of paper was adopted. Although there are styles in college catalogues as in everything else, there is less necessity of following the fashion as a college gets along in years. Ursinus now appears in a garb suited to her age and character and it must not be expected that she will come out in a new color and pattern every season.

By a little problem in arithmetic, I find that I have just finished my twenty-eighth annual catalogue of Ursinus College. The book of today has some of the characteristics of that of twenty-eight years ago, just as the man of sixty-three has some of the features which marked him as a man of thirty-five, yet in the catalogue, as in the college itself, there has been constant growth. The catalogue of 1931-32 is a vastly different book from that with which my first editorial effort was concerned. The value of experience is exemplified in the fact that this year the preparation of copy required only a week whereas years ago it was the job of a month. When a new feature has to be set forth the natural enthusiasm which the president of the institution is likely to have for it tends to extravagant statement, and one must be constantly on guard to prevent this. A college catalogue should be written in the utmost moderation. We have combed our book over and over again for over statements of the truth. Some wag once said that there are three kinds of lies—white lies, black lies and college catalogues, but we have done our best to make the Ursinus catalogue honest and unequivocal from cover to cover.

When a freshman comes to this college we wish that he shall find the institution to be in every respect just what the catalogue represented it to be.

IRA L. BRYNER OF '92

DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Ira L. Bryner graduate of Ursinus in the class of '92, prominent banker and business man of Northern California, and former teacher and lawyer died at his home in Pasadena, California on the morning of February 29. His death followed an illness of more than one year. He was 65 years of age.

Before going to the west Mr. Bryner an attorney by profession was a professor at Shippensburg State Normal School where he taught Latin. Here he became to be known for his remarkable ability as a teacher and a trainer of students. His influence in this field can not easily be reckoned.

In 1902 he moved to California where he became interested in the oil business. In 1912 he established his residence in Pasadena where he lived 20 years until his death. His passing will be mourned by a wide circle of friends who came in contact with his fine mental attainments and rare personal charm.

Services were held in the afternoon of March 2 at Glendale, California.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL MEETS

The council of the Women's Athletic Association held a meeting on March 8 for the purpose of appointing three representatives to the Central Nominating Committee and to discuss revisions for the constitution.

Ruth Wismer, Eveline Omwake, and Helen Eisenberg were appointed representatives to the committee from the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes respectively.

Frosh Quinters Down

Sophs In Close Fray

Coach Don Sterner's Cub passers compensated for all their blunders of the current season Monday night, March 7, at the Thompson-Gay gym. The Frosh humbled the team representing the Sophomore class in their traditional contest. Although the second year men led till the final three minutes of play, the Freshman five won, 29-27.

At the opening whistle, the playing of the Sophs seemed to indicate that they would be easily the victor. Don Breisch, at center for the second year men, had very little trouble in getting the tap. The Frosh defensive seemed only simple barrier as the Sophs tallied their first few field goals. Unfortunately, this ideal state did not remain long for the Sophomores. As the first half grew old, they tired; the attack of the better-conditioned Freshman five prevailed. As the gun was shot to end the first half, the fast-tiring Sophs felt relieved. The class of '35 had crept within striking distance. They trailed the Soph quintet by 4 points, 14-10.

The opening of the second half found the second year men coming back reinvigorated. They scored 6 more points before their opponents could even get started. This made the score 20-10 against the Frosh. But the tide was now to turn. "Bud" Covert '35 tallied a field goal and a foul at this point to put his team in the running and start the Frosh rally to victory. Also adding stimulus to the yearling's rally was the fatigued status of the unconditioned Sophomores. The determined members of '35 continued their offensive attack and spirited endeavor till they reached the numerical total of their adversaries. Then to be finally capped by a field tally by Roy Johnson '35 that decided the bend. The final score—Frosh, 29; Sophs, 27.

Mark Weand, with .11 points, was high scorer for the yearlings. Elmo Sommers, whose lack of team-work was a subject of much open criticism, lead the Sophomores in tallying.

The lineup of the Frosh included: Weand, Fisher, Johnson, Schiele, W. Price, and Covert. The Sophs: Seiple, Sommers, Breisch, Shuman, and M. Smith. The officiating was in the capable hands of Claude Lodge '33, captain of the varsity, and his colleague, Alvin Paul.

YEARLING'S SEASON REVIEWED

In the opener the Cubs were defeated by the Perkiomen School. The husky prep lads who averaged six feet, proved too well organized and experienced a foe for the yearlings. Valley Forge Military Academy was the next Cub opponent. Sterner's charges outfought, outplayed, and did practically all other things necessary to win a ball game, but were nosed out in the final moments of the game to lose by two points.

In the final game of the first semester the Cubs made their first appearance before the student body in a home game with Villanova Frosh as the foe. The first year men lost this contest, but there were many bright spots noticeable in the Freshman play that promised much for the future games on the schedule. However, this ardor was greatly destroyed by the publication of Bob Gibbets and Leonard Heck's name on the Dean's list and the incapacitation of Bill Friel with an injured knee. Coach Sterner then found it necessary to seek an entirely new combination.

Before vanquishing Valley Forge in the local gym for their first win, the Cubs bowed to the Villanova and F. and M. yearlings. Hill School trounced the Frosh in their meeting. F. and M. frosh again trounced the Cubs to end the final schedule.

This debate will be the formal type of debate, with three speakers on each side, followed by a rebuttal. There will be three judges to make the decision.

The negative of the question will be upheld by Ursinus. Those debating will be Rena Grim, '33, Jane Price '32 and Frances Gray, '33.

Keep a Regular
TELEPHONE
Date with Home

HERE'S A TIP for Freshman! Now you're at college, you can always "go home by telephone."

Regularly, or whenever you like, give Mother and Dad a call.

Tonight, for instance, pay them a "voice visit." Tell them how you're settling down. What a thrill they'll have to hear your voice—and maybe you won't enjoy it, too!

But, best of all, arrange to call home each week. That's a joy they'll look forward to as much as you.

FOR THE LOWEST COST AND GREATEST EASE

Set your "date" for after 8.30 P. M. and take advantage of the low Night Rates. (A dollar call is 60c at night; a 50c call is 35c.)

By making a date the folks will be at home. Thus you can make a Station to Station call rather than a more expensive Person to Person call.

Just give the operator your home telephone number. If you like, the charges can be reversed!

MEN'S MASS MEETING

HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

fairs under this arrangement would be:

1. That Student Council should regulate social functions, the band, tug-of-war, and the like.

2. That the disciplinary function should be given to the faculty.

Definite action was not taken by the Men's Student Assembly, but at a similar meeting of the body on the evening of March 29th a final decision will be reached. Either plan proffered must be supported wholeheartedly by the men students in order to make the undertaking a success.

Should the men of the College choose the first suggested plan, it is understood that the several members of the Council would be invested with full police power and would be obliged to report all violations of rules and customs.

BALL AND ENTERTAINMENT

GIVEN BY CLASS OF '32

The Grand Minstrel was an exclusively local affair, songs and "wise-cracks" flying with a vengeance. Participating in the fun were: Bear '34, Kochenberger '34, Hubert '33, Mitchell '34, Dresch '34, Zamostein '33, Detwiler '32, Scirica '32, Welsh '33, Gill '35, Buchanan '33, Morris '33, Covert '32, Citta '33, Gompert '33, Ziccardi '33, O'Donnell '34, Farias '35, and Mueller '35. Kochenberger, Zamostein, Farias and O'Donnell performed as end-men, and Scirica as interlocutor. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Jack Massey '32, chairman, Marjorie Rittenhouse '32, Beatrice Bunn '32, Beatrice Tratner '32, Eleanor Mengel '32, William Schwab '32, and Aram Parunak '33. The Senior Class wishes to acknowledge the whole hearted support given by the Norris Thespians and Mr. Thomas Cahill, through whose directing this entertainment was made possible.

able triumph for the Bears. This was only to be followed by another string of setbacks, four again, after which Muhlenberg was added to the list of those conquered. In between these two games were sandwiched defeats at the hands of L. V. C., Muhlenberg, Gettysburg, and F. and M.

After their first victory the Thompson-Gay troupe resumed their losing ways and finished second in each of three more games, Gettysburg, Drexel, and F. and M. Thus, the futile campaign was closed.

Capt. Lodge easily out-distanced the rest of the field in individual scoring. Although figures for the Princeton game are not available, the following summary is the result of the other 17 games.

DEBATING TEAM ENJOYS SUCCESSFUL ROAD TRIP

Plymouth Congregational Church, the principal of Central High School and the ex-mayor of Scranton gave a 3-0 decision in favor of the Ursinus debaters. The latter were royally entertained during their stay at Scranton.

The Susquehanna debate was cancelled so that Count Felix Luckner could use the auditorium for his Star Course lecture.

The Ursinus boys lost a decision to Muhlenberg on Thursday evening. Ray K. Heist, Henry M. Richards, and Donald V. Hock upheld the negative and Bernard Zamostein, James E. Palm, and Alfred C. Alspach maintained the affirmative.

STUDENTS VS. FACULTY IN BATTLE OF THE CENTURY

For the first time in the history of the ancient and honorable game of Bridge, the two outstanding systems of bidding were brought together. This historic event occurred, strangely enough, in our own beloved hamlet. To be brief, on Wednesday last, Professors Klingaman and Carter were hosts to Messrs. Roberts.

The systems that were previously mentioned are no doubt known to all followers of the "sport of kings"—the faculty team depended on the "physic" method while the Roberts outfit preferred the "psychic" bid.

At the outset, it would seem that both aggregations were of comparatively equal strength. Each man held thirteen cards, of various colors and denominations. There was a slight delay while the players searched the house for any kidnapped children, and then the epic commenced.

Throughout the first few rounds the referees and umpires had a comparatively easy time, but after the first hour Mr. Klingaman became absent minded and had to be forcibly kept from connecting his partner to the electric light socket. Mr. Carter, on the other hand, often was reminded of the Spanish Inquisition and other historic forms of torture when Klingaman (west) bid two no-trump and went up six.

The tournament ended at midnight, at which time the host, Mr. Klingaman (west) served dainty cakes and Havana-Ropa cigars. The score was sent down to Mr. Manning for tabulation. An unofficial report says that the Professors score was eighteen hundred points, but that he is still working on the addition of the Roberts' tally. At last reports it was well over three thousand.

“Choosey” People like the way they TASTE..

IT'S just what you'd expect. People who enjoy the good things of life... are constantly looking for something better to eat and drink...and smoke.

In cigarettes this better taste can come only from finer ingredients. Chesterfields are more satisfying to the cultivated palate. For one thing, there's never any attempt to skimp on Turkish leaf.

These richly flavored Turkish tobaccos are added with a generous hand.

In fact Chesterfield's new way of mingling tobacco flavors and aromas is really the equivalent of an entirely new kind of tobacco . . . one that combines the best qualities of Turkish and fine Domestic leaf.

Perhaps you've noticed too, that the paper in Chesterfields is whiter...purer. It burns without taste or odor.

Smoke Chesterfields whenever you like...They're mild and pure. They'll never tire you as an over-sweetened cigarette might easily do. Light up and see for yourself. They satisfy!
